

Charles Hull Contracting is committed to building enduring relationships with its clients and neighboring communities that are characterised by mutual respect, active partnership, and long-term commitment.

To fulfil this commitment, Charles Hull Contracting will:

- Develop and maintain positive community relationships based on honesty, integrity and mutual trust.
- Identify and facilitate opportunities for employment and business relationships through our contractors and suppliers.
- Meet our clients Indigenous & local community employment needs.
- Continue to support charities and fundraising events within the local community.
- Focus on cultural differences where Indigenous personnel are employed.
- Support the development and implementation of sustainable social and economic initiatives within the communities that we operate.

Approved 24th April 2019

Charles Hull
Director