

CHARLES HULL CONTRACTING

PROJECT

Haul Road Construction

CLIENT

Alcoa

LOCATION

Huntly and Willowdale

START DATE:

1993

END DATE:

August 2014

The project involved the construction of 1200km of haul roads for a long term client.

Key activities:

- topsoil removal,
- secondary overburden removal
- SOBR Backfill
- drill and blast
- dozer levelling
- load and haul
- subgrade trim
- gravel placement
- bund and sump trimming
- culverts and drainage installation

Summary

CHC maintained a good understanding of the job scope.

Strong resource management to maintain targets set by the client.

A good working relationship was held between Charles Hull and the client.

Haul roads programme was always delivered on time and on budget

